

ANALYTICAL METHODS USED

Debauchery Alleged at Program.

July 13.—The lobby in the Senate Committee is during the past few days a scene of extraordinary situations. The famous Col. M. M. Mulhall, a witness stand identify correspondence which he calls "valuable" service to the National Manufacturers' Association. The range of the testimony, and covers alleged bribery and corruption, and many occurrences.

in all walks of life. It ains only a semblance ities of the National anufacturers has been debaucheries. It inclu that men active in t have been suborned ere and spy where st and enters the realm of fact that certain men accepted the assistance of the National Manufacturers' Association, supposedly supposed to have been the most powerful association, with the aim of all men were susceptible to purchase price. Incidentally the agents of the Association applied to the United States Workers, and also of the men in Philadelphia and places. Sentence by sentence is being unfolded. The story of the National Association was to implicate the President of the American Federation of Labor in the story at this writing July 15, has not proceeded far. It has reached that point where the intrigue which had formed the membership of President G. W. was given publicity.

ness himself, substantial witnesses. At the National American Industrial Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers of America, the first congressmen to be named in the Second district, Charles E. Littenfield, was in his hostility toward unions and all labor unions is of historical importance produced before the investigating committee (the House on the activities of the Association of Manufacturers) prominent part in defense of the testimony submitted are voluminous and complied with congressional document. The House has also appointed a Committee and followed the Senate in the will undoubtedly go to some ground, actually, is the fact that numerous have been assailed as agents of the National Manufacturers.

---

DOWN FROM TOWN.

St. Mo., July 19.—The St. Louis Herald says: "In a letter John T. Smith, President of the Missouri State Federation, has an interesting story to tell at Peetuss. Several workers are on strike, and was endeavoring to prevent the difficulty. Fifty strike-breakers, some of the so-called reds, the town, who are the employer of the corporation, the hotel where President Roosevelt is stopping, but only for an interesting time. They have taken his life. Yet the corporation-ridden days. The strike-brings the local police judge."

BARBERS WIN.

July 12.—The barbers and an understanding of barbers shops the wages would be granted to paying the increased wages. Finally, the barbers and the proprietors that the increase on a certain day or a

URGED TO SETTLE

19.—The United States Labor has sent Louis C. Sullivan, its Secretary of Labor, to urge the use of making an effort to settle the strike within a few weeks. Sullivan is the president of the American Federation of Labor. He is the representative of the labor movement in the United States. He will urge the use of arbitration to settle the strike.

STRIKE SETTLED.
Ky., July 13.—The union, recently organized, are in agreement with the company on strike. As the agreement brought about by the company has been resolved, the company has been declared off. By the agreement the company agrees to the union is discontinued, which the Braintree Poultry Company. The Braintree is accepting work from poultry, against which is striking. The Braintree accept contract. The modifiers have re-